We will be exploring the Lost Gnostic past of Avalon by exploring her Ancient Cathedrals, Churches and Chapels. ### Current Avebury and surrounds day by day plans:

Mon 14th Sept: Sacred Sites of Avebury Pilgrimage with Priestess Iona.

Iona says: “The sacred landscape of Avebury is one of the most magnificent ancient sacred sites found in England. Here there is a huge complex of neolithic structures: the world’s largest stone circle, the 5000 year old burial chamber of West Kennet Long Barrow, Silbury Hill, the Sanctuary and two stone avenues! Visiting Avebury transports you to another time and place when our native ancestors honoured the Great Goddess in Her sacred landscape. On this pilgrimage we will walk the footsteps of the ancient ones, connecting to the land, the stones and Goddess. The day is held ceremonially by your Priestess, weaving together information, meditation, prayers and ceremony. There will be time together and some private time in the sacred places.”

Tues 15th Sept: Sunrise at Stonehenge + Highclere Castle

We rise early for a VIP Sunrise Visit to Stonehenge*, entering the inner circle in a rare private experience before the site opens to the public. After breakfast and some space back at Avebury, we head to Highclere Castle — home of Downton Abbey and the Carnarvon family — with time to explore its grand rooms, gardens, and Egyptian exhibition. If time permits, stop at St. Michael & All Angels Church, a key Downton filming site, before returning to Avebury.

Wed 16th Sept: White Horse Pilgrimage

This day in the region follows the ancient chalk sigils carved into sacred hillsides.

We begin at Uffington White Horse, Dragon Hill, and Wayland’s Smithy, followed by a nourishing lunch at Honey Street Mill Café with time to explore the Crop Circle Exhibition.

Later, we visit the Alton Barnes White Horse and Cherhill White Horse before returning to The Farm at Avebury to rest and reflect.

Thurs 17th Sept: Onwards to Salisbury, Old Sarum & Stonehenge***

Departing The Farm at Avebury, we journey to Salisbury, where we will visit:

- Salisbury Cathedral, home to the best-preserved of 4 original Magna Carta documents
- Old Sarum, the ancient hillfort and former site of the original Salisbury
- A second VIP Sunset visit to Stonehenge*

 Accommodation in Salisbury, Thur 17th Sept: Our final night is at Sarum College (or similar), right beside the Cathedral, breakfast included.

🔥 Fri 18th Sept: Farewell

Depart for London Heathrow. Our sacred journey completes.

Additional Notes

- *Stonehenge* VIP Visits:* I am working to secure two special-access visits to Stonehenge—one at sunrise and one at sunset. These small group visits are rare and very special. Previously it was 30 people, but they have just increased to 50 people. If I'm unable to secure these VIP tickets, you will be refunded the ticket difference.
- Returning to Sites: Many sacred places will be visited more than once on our travels. This allows our connection with places to deepen and our hearts to open further with each visit.
- Gatherings & Ceremonies: We will also enjoy sacred circles with guides, and sacred gatherings at selected accommodations as the Divine calls.
